Unless the instrument provides otherwise, the designation of the decedent's spouse as an agent or successor agent in the instrument is revoked when the marriage [on the divorce] of the decedent and the spouse appointed as an agent or successor agent is dissolved by divorce, annulled, or declared void before the decedent's death. Such written instrument may be modified or revoked only by a subsequent written instrument that complies with this subsection.

(k) Any dispute among any of the persons listed in Subsection (a) concerning their right to control the disposition, including cremation, of a decedent's remains shall be resolved by a court with [of competent] jurisdiction over probate proceedings for the decedent, regardless of whether a probate proceeding has been initiated. A cemetery organization or funeral establishment shall not be liable for refusing to accept the decedent's remains, or to inter or otherwise dispose of the decedent's remains, until it receives a court order or other suitable confirmation that the dispute has been resolved or settled.

20 and that law continues in effect for that purpose.

21 SECTION 4. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this

9 this Act would substantially interfere with the effective conduct

11 Subsection (a)(1) of this section that is pending on the effective
12 date of this Act or prejudice the rights of a party to the 13 proceeding, the provision of this Act does not apply, and the law in
